West Side Tavern Displays Passion in Every Libation

West Side Tavern brings classy, comfortable drinking and dining experience with new winter menu to Old Town Longmont.

LONGMONT, COLO., Nov. 16, 2017 – Being passionate about crafting the perfect cocktails for his customers is what West Side Tavern proprietor Westley Isbutt prides himself on. From how the cocktails look, to how they taste and the way they are presented to the customer; this combination is what makes West Side Tavern a unique neighborhood gastropub.

The Tavern has a casual yet sophisticated feel to it that is geared toward adults only. Upon entering West Side Tavern, bold artwork adds to its unique ambiance. Winter provisions are now mollycoddling patrons to high-end concoctions, fine wines, whiskeys, and uncommon beers that are sure to delight and indulge their palates.

West Side Tavern has access to one of the richest agricultural communities in the United States, which allows it to use the freshest ingredients in their tantalizing elixirs and culinary delights. Bringing people together through freshly made libations and cuisine in a hometown environment is what makes this establishment one to check off of your next pub-crawl.
